

TABLE OF CONTENTS Kepri book

Performing the Arts of Indonesia: Malay Identity and Politics in the Music, Dance and Theatre of the Riau Islands

Edited by Margaret Kartomi

PART I: THE RIAU ARCHIPELAGO IN THE SOUTHERN MALAY WORLD

- 1 The Islands, the Islanders, and the Politics of Identity in Riau Island Musical Arts – Margaret Kartomi
- 2 The World of the Southern Malays - Leonard Andaya
- 3 The Sound of Music and the Orang Suku Laut Today - Cynthia Chou

PART II: THE ISLANDS IN THE STRAITS OF MELAKA

- 4 The Nobat in the Riau-Lingga Sultanate, its Colonial Era Demise, and its Recent Sonic Re-Invention - Margaret Kartomi
- 5 Sound, Power, Emotion and Performance of the Literary Arts in the 19th Century - Jenny McCallum
- 6 Bangsawan Musical Theatre as a Medium for Local Cultural Identity, Nostalgia and Artistic Expression - Bronia Kornhauser
- 7 Biola Musicians and Repertoire in Lingga and Tanjungpinang Compared - Brigitta Scarfe and Muhamad Hasbi
- 8 Kinship among Penyengat Musicians: Raja Khadijah, Tengku Fadillah, their forebears and descendants - Vivienne Wee
- 9 The Zapin Dance and Gambus Music on Penyengat Island: History and Style - Raja Alfirafindra and Rina Martiara

PART III: THE ISLANDS IN THE SOUTH CHINA SEA

- 10 Gobang: Anambas' Masked Dance Rituals on the Beach – Syafaruddin, Manolete Mora and Margaret Kartomi
- 11 Mendu Theatre Performance in the Natuna Islands: from Ranai to Sedenau – Karen Kartomi Thomas

PART IV: THE METROPOLISES – NEW CREATIONS AND POPULAR CULTURE

- 12 Malay Art Music Composers and Performers in Tanjungpinang and Penyengat – Geoffrey Benjamin
- 13 Musical Cosmopolitanism in Batam and Bintan: Local Responses to Socio-Cultural Transformation – Manolete Mora
- 14 Who Cares About Malay Music? – Nicholas Long